NPC
The Energy People

Hurricane Safety Tips

Before the storm:

Listen carefully to all bulletins to keep track of the storm.

Prepare your Hurricane Emergency Kit.

Plan your evacuation route to your nearest emergency shelter.

For emergencies / after hours call
430-4000 or 430-4099

NPC
The Energy People

Hurricane Safety Tips

During the storm:

Your Natural Gas service will continue to be available during the storm, providing that there is no safety risk.

For emergencies / after hours call

430-4000 or 430-4099

NPC
The Energy People

Hurricane Safety Tips

During the storm:

If you smell and or hear a possible gas leak during the storm, shut off the valve and call the National Petroleum Corporation.

When the all clear has been issued, we will visit to rectify the situation.

For emergencies / after hours call

430-4000 or 430-4099

NPC
The Energy People

Hurricane Safety Tips

During the storm:

If there is severe lightning consider unplugging your natural gas appliances to avoid electrical damage.

For emergencies / after hours call

430-4000 or 430-4099

NPC
The Energy People

Hurricane Safety Tips

After the storm:

If you experience any problems restarting or re-lighting your equipment/appliances, call the National Petroleum Corporation for assistance.

For emergencies / after hours call

430-4000 or 430-4099

NPC
The Energy People

Hurricane Safety Tips

After the storm:

Check for signs of discolored vegetation, blowing dirt or continued bubbling water in the area of a buried gas line.

Contact the NPC if you are concerned about a possible leak.

For emergencies / after hours call
430-4000 or 430-4099